

Learn to Use iPods to Reach and Teach Students with Autism

Presented by Beth Waite, CCC/SLP-ATP, Assistive Technology Specialist and Dave Lafever, BS/EET, Technology Trainer

www.bethwaitetech.com

When: Tuesday, August 3, 2010 9 AM - 4:30 PM

Where: Indiana Wesleyan University Education and Conference Center
3777 Priority Way South Drive, Indianapolis, IN 46240

Do you want to learn more about iPods and how you can use them to help students with disabilities? Have you heard about using iPods for students with Autism, but aren't sure where to begin? Bring your iPod Touch to follow along with the instructor's step-by-step tour.

Then learn how iTunes software can download music, apps, photos, and more to iPods. Once you've got the basics, see numerous apps demonstrated and videos of students using them for:

- Communication
- Behavior intervention
- Social skill enhancement
- Functional learning
- Leisure activities
- Video modeling
- Academic support

The apps shown also work on iPads and iPhones. You do not need to have an iPod Touch to attend, but feel free to bring one (or an iPad or iPhone) if you do. Learn how you can use the iPod Touch with your students today!

Beth Waite is a speech-language pathologist and certified Assistive Technology specialist with 25 years experience in working with children and adults with special needs. She has presented at major national conferences for 20 years, including Closing the Gap, the Assistive Technology Industry Association conference, and Indiana Council for Exceptional Children.

Dave Lafever is a rehabilitation engineer with almost 30 years experience in working with technology and people with disabilities. He has trained people to successfully use a wide variety of assistive technology hardware and software and has used Apple products since 1987.

Registration:

Send your payment (check or money order only, please) with the registration form to:

Beth Waite
102 Chapman Circle
Greenfield, IN 46140

All attendees will receive e-mail confirmation and a Certificate of Attendance.

As space must be reserved for participants, refunds cannot be provided.

Comments from previous attendees:

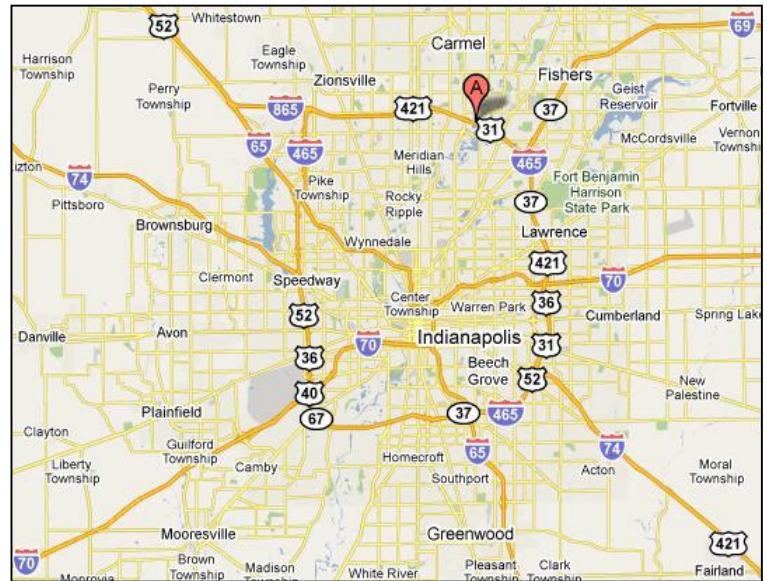

'Beth was AMAZING! She and Dave worked very well together. I loved how she showed us so many apps we could download and she did a good job of showing us very quickly many amazing apps for our students.'

'You always do an awesome job'

'I can't wait to try this with my son'

'Thanks again for sharing your knowledge and instilling a feeling of calm and "you can do it" confidence!'

'This is such a nice location for a conference'

A. Indiana Wesleyan University
Education and Conference Center
3777 Priority Way South Drive
Indianapolis, IN 46240

Need more info? Email Beth at beth@bethwaitetech.com or call 317-498-9115

_____ 9:00-11:30 iPod Touch & iTunes Basics $50.00

_____ 1:00-4:30 iPods for AAC and Autism $75.00

Total for all day training: $125.00

NAME: _____ Educator/Therapist

ADDRESS: _____ Family member

PHONE: _____ EMAIL: _____